

Standards of Learning Tests

Students must take applicable end-of-course SOL tests following course instruction. Students who successfully complete a course and who achieve a passing score on end-of-course SOL test or a state approved substitute test for that course shall be awarded a verified credit.